

Adverbs of TIME

Adverbs of time help you place when or for how long an action takes place. These adverbs are time markers, and we use them along with verb tenses.

1

Adverbs of time tell us WHEN? Often, but not always, this adverb goes after the verb it modifies.

- Actualmente: currently
- Ahora: now
- Anoche: last night
- Antes: before
- Anteayer: the day before yesterday
- Anualmente: yearly
- Aún: still
- Ayer: yesterday
- Bastante: quite a while
- Cuando: when
- Después: after / then
- Durante: during
- Entonces: then / so
- Nunca: never
- Pronto: soon
- Semanalmente: weekly
- Siempre: always
- Tarde: late
- Temprano: early
- Todavía: still
- Ya: already
- Hoy: today
- Luego: later
- Mañana: tomorrow
- Mensualmente: monthly
- Mientras: while / in the meantime

-Salí temprano de la oficina.

I left the office early.

-Mañana iré al dentista.

I'll go to the dentist tomorrow.

-Todavía no he terminado de comer.

I haven't finished eating yet.